

Terms and Conditions

TERMS & CONDITIONS

If you register for one of our courses (in-person or online) or sign up for one of our memberships, you will first need to accept these terms and conditions. You are being asked to electronically sign the following Course Agreement and Waiver to participate in our courses. Please be aware that if you do not sign this Agreement and Waiver and agree to its terms, you will not be able to participate in our in-person / online courses or memberships. If there is anything you are uncomfortable with, please let us know - we want to make sure we are on the same page moving forward. A copy of the agreement and waiver is available to print online for your records. We may update these terms and conditions at any time and will be asked to agree to the updated terms and conditions in this event.

IN-PERSON AND ONLINE COURSE AGREEMENT & WAIVER Why You're Reading This Document

Our goal is to communicate with honesty and integrity. This online course agreement (the "Agreement" and "Waiver") outlines our mutual expectations and the terms and conditions for participating in our in-person and online courses as well as openly communicating the risks associated with our courses. It is necessary to have a signed agreement to create a safe space for all students and staff members.

There are two places to electronically sign (the "Agreement" and "Waiver")

Part 1: Agreement by signing up for our in-person and online courses and memberships, you agree to be bound by the following conditions.

1. Parties. This Agreement is made between Healing Light Studios, a DBA of Jessica Mehu Photography LLC ("HLS", "we", "our", and "us") and you, the undersigned (electronically or by hand) or person who has clicked "I Agree" to this Agreement ("you" and "your").
2. The Courses. HLS is providing you with in-person and online educational courses, classes and activities that you are purchasing, (collectively the "The Courses" and "Activities"). This agreement for the The Courses covers all of our educational courses, including personal development courses and coaching (1:1 or in a group setting), yoga courses, meditation courses, and any other course, workshop, education or activity we offer.

3. Term + Termination. This Agreement will be binding upon your signature at registration for The Course (including free trial periods) and continues during the entirety of participating with HLS in any capacity online or in-person. Once signed, you will receive your emailed welcome letter and information on access to your Online Course. Please note that if you violate any of the terms of this Agreement, HLS may terminate this Agreement and you will not be entitled to any refunds or continued working relationship with HLS.

4. Payment. Payment of The Course is due upon completed purchase of The Course, or at the end of the trial period offered to you at time of purchase. You agree to pay the full tuition price of what you are purchasing, including the possibility of payments in installments or recurring subscriptions, of The Course as advertised through our media and website.

4.1 Refunds. All payments are non-refundable. In the event that a live course needs to be rescheduled, you will be given a credit to use for future courses. In the event you are unable to attend for unforeseen occurrences, you may be given a credit depending on the circumstances. You must contact HLS by email no later than 48 hours after the purchased scheduled event to request this credit.

4.2 Memberships/Subscriptions are enrolled in autopay, reoccurring monthly at the agreed upon price. If you are signed up for our “Financial Hardship” plan, proof of state assistance must be submitted to us in person or by email with-in 7 days of enrollment. You may change your membership type or cancel your membership at any time. We work on a trust system at HLS, and trust that if you are no longer experiencing financial hardship, you will adjust your membership accordingly. We also understand that circumstances change and you may no longer be able to afford the “Pay it Forward” membership. Please adjust your membership as needed for your comfort. We appreciate your honesty and integrity in working with us to make our services accessible to all.

4.3 Payment Failure. In the event that you break your agreed upon payment plan, you will lose access to the Course. If you experience an extenuating life circumstance (ie; death in the family, job loss, natural disaster, etc) that requires you to discontinue or postpone your tuition requirements or course participation we require notice of the issue in writing to info@healingLS.com within seven days of the incident. HLS will then determine the most equitable and appropriate course of action in regards to your financial situation and participation ability. Memberships can also be paused at any time by you with-in your members portal on our site.

5. Individual Login Access. Any passwords and user IDs used to access the Online Course as part of this Agreement are for your individual use only. You are responsible for the security of your password and user ID and for all activities that occur under your user ID and password. You agree to notify us immediately of any unauthorized use of your password or account or any other breach of security. You further agree that HLS will not be responsible for the unauthorized use of your profile by any other person and is under no obligation to confirm the actual identity of any password or user ID.

6. No-shows/cancellations (in-person courses and all 1:1 appointments). Space and time is limited in our in-person courses and all 1:1 appointments, and we ask that you act in a respectful manner towards the practitioner and fellow students by cancelling your booking at least 24 hours before the scheduled time. If you experience an extenuating circumstance (emergencies, onset of illness, etc) with-in that time period, you agree to contact the practitioner directly to inform them of the event, or email HLS at info@healingLS.com. No-shows with no notice from you of the circumstance with-in 48 hours of your booking will not be tolerated and will result in loss of access to The Courses/Memberships.

7. Responsibility. The Courses are a rigorous immersion educational program. You are responsible for your experience and well-being while participating in the Courses. You agree to support the training environment and contribute to a safe, respectful, and positive experience for everyone.

7.1. The practice of yoga, meditation, inquiry and related techniques can produce non-ordinary states of awareness, and the Course instructors and staff are not responsible for managing every student's personal needs. The curriculum for the Courses have been designed to create the optimal education for the majority of students, and your specific experiences may be different from others and different from your expectations.

7.2. If you experience uncomfortable emotions, feelings, physical pain or discomfort, mental anxiety, stress, or depression, you agree to seek professional assistance from a qualified therapist or medical practitioner outside of this program. You understand that our practitioners are instructors, coaches and guides. Not medical practitioners. The Courses are not to be substituted for medical care or mental health therapists.

7.3. The study of yoga and meditation involves exploring and discussing different belief systems. You agree to respect all the ideas and practices that are presented as part of the Course curriculum. Participating in the Courses does not require or advise you to change your beliefs in any way.

8. Your Conduct. You are solely responsible for all videos, images, information, or other data that you upload, publish, or otherwise use via the Online Courses, if applicable. HLS reserves the right to remove any kind of offensive or inappropriate content from the Online Courses, and to suspend or terminate your access to the Online Courses in such an event.

8.1. Interactions within the Courses. HLS is a safe space for all. You are expected to act respectfully towards others throughout the Courses and across all relevant platforms. You are responsible for your own actions and interactions with any other student in connection with the Courses. HLS will have no liability or responsibility in this regard, however we reserve the right, to become involved in any way with disputes between you and any other participants. Racism, bigotry, sexism and discrimination of any kind will not be tolerated and will result in termination of courses and all participation with HLS.

9. Confidentiality. You understand that we provide space in an intimate setting in which people may share private and confidential information about themselves or others. Therefore, you agree to respect and maintain the privacy and confidentiality of anything shared among participants in-person and online across the platforms we utilize, including after it has been completed. This section shall survive the termination of this Agreement.

9.1. You further agree not to post or publish any text, screenshots, videos, or audio recordings of other individuals or download or share any course material provided by HLS or another participant outside of this Online Course.

10. No Guarantees. As this is an independent study arrangement, it is up to you what you get out of the Courses. No guarantees can be made for the results from the Courses.

11.Ownership of Intellectual Property. All materials provided in connection with this Agreement, including without limitation, written or printed documents, photographs, audio and video recordings and software programs, and all copies and derivative works relating thereto (the “Course Materials”), are and will remain the sole and exclusive property of HLS. You have a limited, non-exclusive right to use the Course Materials to the extent necessary to your personal learning experience.

11.1. An example of something you are not allowed to do with the Course Materials would be to create a photocopy or reproduce the Course Materials and give it to a friend or sell it to someone.

11.2. Another example would be to use the Course Materials or other proprietary concepts and techniques to create your own online program, or to provide them to someone else who intends to do so.

12.Loss of Access. HLS retains the right to revoke your access to our online and/or in-person offerings and any Course Materials in the event that you do not make your payments or if you steal any of our intellectual property, or engage in inappropriate or offensive conduct. Access suspension due to non-payment will be restored once you pay your full amount owing.

13.Third Parties. You are prohibited from sharing any information, or content including videos, audio recordings, PDFs and other course materials that you receive through the Courses with any third parties, without our consent. In the event that you do share any information received or downloaded from the Courses, HLS will exercise our full legal rights to remedy the situation, and may terminate your course access without refund.
